

Learn about the fastest growing Hebrew School in Bergen County!

In 2007 Congregation Beth Shalom (CBS) re-launched the Religious School which was formerly hosted in Congregation Beth Israel in Bergenfield. The CBS Religious School has strengthened the curriculum and staff and is making a major push to boost enrollment.

Curriculum: The CBS Religious School offers a program of Jewish studies which includes Hebrew language, texts, prayer, rituals, Israel, and Jewish History.

- K-2 Hebrew alphabet, basic Hebrew vocabulary, Shabbat and Holidays, Bible stories
- 3-4 Holiday rituals, Prayers (Brachot, Kabbalat Shabbat), weekly Torah portion, Prophets
- 5-7 Prayer concepts, Shabbat morning service, basic conversational Hebrew

Atmosphere: The Congregation Beth Shalom Religious School has small classes and individual attention. The school cultivates a hands-on, interactive environment that encourages self-motivation.

Classes are held Sunday and Thursday at Congregation Beth Shalom's facility, 354 Maitland Avenue, Teaneck. The first day of class is Sunday, September 13, 2009.

Our Students: The Congregation Beth Shalom Religious School serves the needs of students in grades K thru 7. Students come from Teaneck, Englewood, Tenafly, Fort Lee and neighboring communities. The Congregation Beth Shalom Religious School is proud to be affiliated with Kol HaNeshamah, Englewood.

The school's educational program is designed in accordance with guidelines from the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism. However, the school attracts students from a range of religious backgrounds. Synagogue affiliation is not required for enrollment.
